

William Massey

Professional Summary

- Web developer and a Teaching Assistant for Computer Science at the University of Auckland
- Computer Science and Statistics major at the University of Auckland (Graduating in 2027)
- Proficient in JavaScript, Python, Java, R, and SQL
- Experienced in automated testing and CI/CD workflows
- Expert in React/Node.js ecosystem, data processing (R/Python/SQL), and UI/UX design via Figma

Work Experience

Landkind [Nov 2025 – Feb 2026] / Interning as a JavaScript Developer

- Responsible for designing, coding, deploying websites, alongside debugging and maintaining applications, handling automated test coverage, data processing and analysis workflows.
- More Info: linkedin.com/post

University of Auckland [July 2025 – Present] / CS130 & CS101 Teaching Assistant

- Managing CS130 & CS101 lab sessions and providing guidance to students on course topics to aid their understanding and progress.

Venue Merchandising Services [Nov 2024 – Present] / Retail Worker

- Working alongside other team members to manage merchandise inventory and provide a smooth customer experience during concert events.

Education

University of Auckland [Jan 2024 – Present] / Bachelor of Science majoring in Computer Science and Statistics

- Achieving a 6.5 GPA.
- Science Scholars – part of an excelled group of students interested in further study. Involved in weekly additional lectures and group projects to develop our practical skills and interest in science. Working towards final year research project.

Hex International Internship [July 2026]

- Accepted a university scholarship to go an exchange in Vietnam.
- Learning from startup founders and entrepreneurs to grow new businesses

Full Stack Engineering Course (Codecademy) [Jan 2024 – Jan 2025]

- Developed proficiency in front-end technologies (HTML, CSS, JS, ReactJS), back-end development (Node.js, Express), database management (PostgreSQL), and cybersecurity principles.

Alliance Francaise [Jan 2024 – Dec 2025]

- Involves weekly lessons, one going through syllabus, and another speaking.

Projects

UoA Dosh Case Competition Team Finalist

- Designed and developed a direction that Dosh (a mobile banking startup) could go to grow their business and reach new customers in the NZ market.

University of Sydney's Humanitarian Innovation Hackathon Entry [July 2025] / Submission

- Designed an application aimed at stabilizing food prices in the Solomon Islands through affordable buffer stock management.
- Project garnered significant interest from a judge, leading to discussions about continuation.

Dash Page [April 2025] / github.com/WilliamM163/chrome_homescreen

- A simple application where users can change up their web browsers new tab page to their liking.
- HTML, CSS, JS, React, Redux, IndexedDB Web API

Fun Login [March 2025] / github.com/WilliamM163/fun_login

- A login and authentication flow with a twist, the users password is the unique way in which the user solves a snake game.
- HTML, CSS, JS, React, NodeJS, ExpressJS, PostgreSQL

Volunteering Experience

Mentoring Science Scholars Students [March 2025 – November 2025]

- Guiding first year university students interested in STEM fields into further study and research.
- Providing a friend to look to for help with study and direction, early into their careers.

CS230 Class Rep [March 2025 – June 2025]

- Facilitating feedback and communication between students and faculty to ensure the course runs well and adapts to changes.

Codecademy Club Captain [June 2024 – June 2026]

- Organizing club meetings, creating and running lessons, and leading projects which help members build a practical set of coding skills.

References

- James Ing | Technical Lead at Landkind
- Angela Chang | Lecturer at The University of Auckland

Contacts provided on request